My Dear Parishioners,

I pray that all is well with you. I feel and I know that you are sad that we are unable to come together as one family in Church at this difficult time. However, I know that you are taking this moment to be united in spirit with our Lord thinking about our brothers and sisters especially those who are suffering physically and emotionally. On March 19th, we prayed the rosary with Pope Francis, Bishop Checchio and all Catholics and Christians throughout the world united as one voice. We will surely overcome this. Our prayers are abundantly welling up to heaven and God cannot but hear us. I am thinking and praying for you in my private masses as we moved along. I am missing you.

Take care and God bless us all.

Sincerely,

Fr. Bert
